AFFLIB is covered under two copyright regimes.

Items that were created in 2005 and 2006 are covered under the four-part Berkeley copyright license. The advertising clause is intentional included and can only be removed with the permission of Basis Technology Corp. In the past Basis has been willing to waive the advertising requirement when requested:

AFFLIB 2.0a14, dated December 8, 2006, was the last version of AFFLIB to be exclusively licensed under the four-part Berkeley license.

On December 24, 2006, Simson Garfinkel became a full-time employee of the US Government. Works of US Government employees developed as part of their employment are not subject to copyright. Therefore all files contributed to AFFLIB after December 24, 2006 developed by Simson Garfinkel, any copyright notice notwithstanding, are not covered under US copyright law and are in the public domain.

The files in AFFLIB 2.0a14 that are covered under the four-part Berkeley license are:
